Archbishop Chaput's statement on resignation of Cardinal Law

December 13, 2002

"Cardinal Law's resignation as archbishop of Boston marks another painful moment in the crisis of the past year. I know Cardinal Law made a decision he believes is best for the people of his archdiocese, past victims of abuse, and his Church. I share in his hope that this action will help mend the deep wounds in the Boston community and encourage reconciliation and unity."
