Statement by Archbishop Chaput on the death of Terri Schiavo

March 31 , 2005

"Terri Schiavo's death is a tragedy. We need to pray first for Ms. Schiavo, that God will welcome her into eternal life; and then for her family, that God will grant them consolation and strength. We also need to reflect very carefully on the circumstances that led to this moment, the means we use to measure the sanctity of human life, and what kind of future we're choosing for our culture as we struggle with similar cases in the years ahead."
