

THEOLOGY ON TAP

DENVER

Spring Series 2010

January 15 ~ Fr. Kevin Augustyn

Ever Ancient, Ever New -

The Ongoing Renewal of the Church

This talk will explore the controversial but ongoing interpretation and implementation of Vatican II in the New Evangelization and concrete steps for the renewal of the Catholic Church in the modern world.

February 12 ~ Steve Markel

Marriage and Finance

Steve is recently retired from American Funds as Senior Vice President where he spent 21 years. American Funds is the Distribution Company for the Capital Group which is one of the oldest and largest money management organizations in the U.S., managing over $1.5 trillion for over 3 million investors, at the point of his departure. Steve and his wife Nancy have organized and developed parenting programs and talks in the Denver area over the past 18 years. They have 6 children, ages 21 to 32 and have 2 grand children.

March 12 ~ Bishop Conley

Outside poetry, there is no salvation

Come & hear the personal faith journey that led Bishop Conley to the beauty of the Catholic Church. Bishop Conley serves as Auxiliary Bishop for the Archdiocese of Denver. He assists Archbishop Chaput in the pastoral care of the diocese and resides at Mother of God parish in Denver.

April 9 ~ Ben & Heather Akers

A Match Made in Heaven

They dated in college. They broke up to discern their vocations—he went to the seminary and she went to the convent. They both discerned that God wasn't calling them to religious life but then they had to figure out if God was calling them back together for marriage. Here's one couple's story of finding God's plan for their lives. Ben and Heather Akers just moved back to Denver after 5 years of living, studying, and working in Rome. Ben is the new Director of the Denver Catholic Biblical School and Catechetical School at the Archdiocese of Denver.

8:00 - 9:30 pm (speaker starts at 8:30)

BRAUN'S BAR & GRILL

1055 Auraria Parkway

www.archden.org/youth