

CATHOLIC SCHOOL

TAKE ANOTHER LOOK

Myth: “Sender” parents make more money than the “non-sender” parents and can afford Catholic schools.

Fact: The marketing and branding study found that senders and non-senders have similar incomes, they just choose to invest their money differently.

NEW CATHOLIC SCHOOL VOUCHER

A new archdiocesan Catholic School Voucher Program is one more tuition assistance source now available to families who qualify. The $3,000 voucher is renewable for up to four (4) years at any one of the participating archdiocesan Catholic schools. Please contact the Office of Catholic Schools at (303) 715-3200 to learn more about this exciting new program and receive an application.

IT IS AS EASY AS 1...2...3!

The Archdiocese of Denver’s Catholic Schools are an investment in the future of our children and our Catholic faith.

Several Tuition Assistance Sources

- | | |
|-----------------------------|--------------------|
| - Parishes | - ACE |
| - Endowments | - Seeds of Hope |
| - The Catholic Foundation | - Daniels Fund |
| - Schmitz Foundation | - Byrne Foundation |
| - E. Isabella Stupfel Trust | |

During the 2005-06 academic year, archdiocesan Catholic Schools and families received over $8 million in tuition assistance from various sources.