

CATHOLIC SCHOOL

TAKE ANOTHER LOOK

“I also want them to receive the best education that will be available to them. A school that will teach them how to respect other people and be an honorable citizen who will help someone else as they travel through this life.”

– Catholic School Voucher Recipient

“Our Catholic Schools have produced countless numbers of well-educated and moral citizens who are leaders in our civic and ecclesial communities. We must work with all parents so they have the choice of an education that no other school can supply – excellent academics imparted in the context of Catholic teaching and practice.”

“A Harvard University study issued in 2000 reported that Catholic School students performed better than other students on the three basic objectives of civic education – the capacity for civic engagement (e.g., voluntary community service), political knowledge (e.g., learning and using civic skills), and political tolerance (e.g., respect for opinions different from their own).”

– Renewing Our Commitment to Catholic Elementary and Secondary Schools in the Third Millennium USCCB July 2005

The Archdiocese of Denver’s Catholic Schools are an investment in the future of our children and our Catholic faith.

