

CATHOLIC SCHOOL: TAKE ANOTHER LOOK

“Attending a Catholic school is the greatest predictor of strong religious knowledge” (Convey, J. J. & Thompson, A. D. Weaving Christ’s Seamless Garment: Assessment of Catholic Religious Education 1999, Washington D.C.).

“This test of religious knowledge contained six items measuring understanding of the Mystical Body, Eighth Commandment, Incarnation, grace, Judgment, and the papal encyclicals” (Catholic Schools Make a Difference, p. 72).

The Archdiocese of Denver’s Catholic Schools are an investment in the future of our children and our Catholic faith.
