Investing in our Future ... Catholic Schools continue to expand

Despite many challenges, there is good news in Catholic education today! As education in general faces economic challenges and changing demographic trends, Catholic schools continue to expand their presence in the education landscape.

According to National Catholic Educational Association annual report on education trends:

- Nation-wide, 38 new Catholic schools opened during the 2005-06 school year;
- In the last five years, 332 Catholic schools have opened;
- 2,403 Catholic schools have waiting lists for admission.

In the Archdiocese of Denver, 54% of the archdiocesan Catholic schools had an increase in enrollment for the 2006-07 school year.

The Archdiocese of Denver's Catholic Schools are an investment in the future of our children and our Catholic faith.
